CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Samuel Kenan, M.D.

Education:

Oct 1969-Jun 1973 Six-year medical school program, first three years of Medical School at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Bologna, Italy

Oct 1973-Jun 1976 Last three years of medical school at the Hebrew University, Hadassah Medical School, Jerusalem, Israel

Jul 1976-Jun 1977 Internship in Tel-Hashomer Hospital, Tel Aviv, Israel

Jun 1978 M.D., Hebrew University Hadassah Medical School, Israel

Post Graduate Training:

Jul 1977-Jun 1978 Fellow in Bone Pathology, Hadassah University Hospital

Jul 1978-Jun 1984 Orthopaedic Residency, Comprised of six years:
Orthopaedics, four years
General Surgery, one year
Plastic Surgery, Pediatric Surgery, Neurosurgery,
Intensive Care Unit each three months

July 1984-June 1985 Attending in the orthopaedic department Hadassah university hospital

Jul 1985-Dec 1985 Fellowship in Orthopaedic Pathology, Chairman,
Professor Hubert Sissons, Hospital for Joint Diseases, NY

Jan 1986-Dec 1986 Fellowship in Orthopaedic Oncology, Chairman,
Professor Michael Lewis, Hospital for Joint Disease, NY

Jan 1987-Jun 1987 Fellowship in Joint Replacement, Chief, Dr. Steve Stuchin,
Hospital for Joint Diseases, NY

Certification: Board Certified in Orthopaedic Surgery, Israel, 1984
License # 14513-8265
E.C.F.M.G. 1977, #267-309-3
FLEX 1987, 470327010

Licensure: Orthopaedic Surgeon, Board Certified, Israel, 1984.

New York State License to Practice Medicine and Perform Surgery, License #181971

Academic Appointments:

1980-1984	Instructor in Orthopaedic Surgery, Hebrew University Medical School, Hadassah Hospital
1985-1988	Lecturer (Assistant Professor) in Orthopaedic Surgery, Hebrew University Medical School, Hadassah Hospital, Jerusalem
1990 - June 1996	Associate Professor, Orthopaedic Surgery Mount Sinai School of Medicine, NY
May 1996 - Present	Professor of Orthopaedics New York University Medical School
January 2000- present	Adjunct professor of orthopaedic surgery New York medical college
July 2004- present	Adjunct professor of Orthopaedic surgery Stony Brook University medical center
July 2006- present	Adjunct professor of orthopaedic surgery Mount Sinai Medical school

Hospital Appointments:

Jul 1984 - Jun 1985	Attending, Orthopaedic Surgery, Hadassah University Hospital, Jerusalem
Jul 1987 - June 1988	Chief, Orthopaedic Oncology Service, Hadassah University Hospital Jerusalem
July 1988-June 1990	Associate of Dr. Michael Lewis in his practice of Orthopaedic Oncology at the Mount Sinai Hospital, New York
Jun 1990 - June 1996	Associate Attending Orthopaedic Surgery Mount Sinai Medical School, NY
Jul 1993 - June 1996	Chief, Orthopaedic Oncology Service Mount Sinai Medical School, NY
May 1996 - 2010	Chief of Orthopaedic Oncology Hospital for Joint Diseases, Orthopaedic Institute

New York University Medical Center

January 2012

Chief orthopaedic musculoskeletal oncology,
North Shore, LIJ Cohen pediatric hospitals

Hospital affiliation:

Hospital for Joint Diseases (1996- present)
New York University Medical Center (1996- present)
Bellevue Hospital (1996- present)
Lenox Hill Hospital (1998- present)
North Shore University Hospital (1999- present)
Long Island Jewish Hospital (1999- present)
Winthrop hospital
Franklin Hospital (1998- present)
Maimonides Hospital (1999- present)
Westchester County medical center (1999-present)
Beth Israel Medical Center (2001- present)
Saint Vincent Hospital (2003- present)
Methodist Hospital (2003- present)
Stony Brook university Medical center
Saint Charles hospital
Saint Francis Hospital (2009 –present)
New York Queens hospital (2010-present)

Principal Clinical and Hospital Service Responsibilities:

1990-June 1996 Member, Tumor Board Committee
1990-1993 Quality Assurance Committees
1990-June 1996 Assistant Editor, Mount Sinai Journal of Medicine
Member of the academic appointment committee NYU

Teaching Experience:

1990 - 1998 Lectures in anatomy, pathology and orthopaedic oncology-
Medical School Mount Sinai.
1990- Present Series of lectures in basic science and orthopaedic pathology, oncology as part of the residency training curriculum given at, Lenox Hill Hospitals, Hospital for Joint Disease, North Shore Hospital, Long Island Jewish Hospital, Maimonides Hospital.
1990- Present Responsible of the education of Musculoskeletal Oncology
for rotating residents from different programs

Professional Societies:

Israel Orthopaedic Association
Orthopaedic Research Society
International Skeletal Society
American Medical Association
International Society on Limb Sparing Surgery
American Musculoskeletal Tumor Society
New York Cancer Society
New York state society of orthopaedic surgeons
